

OPEN ACCESS STATEMENT

The content of the International Journal of Finance and Accounting Forensics (IJFAF) is available for free, immediately upon publication, to individual and institutional users. All users are allowed to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search and create Internet links (hyperlinks) to the full texts in the open source repository of this journal, without prior permission from the publisher and/or author/s, and in accordance with the Creative Commons (CC BY ND – Attribution-NoDerivatives) license, available at the following Internet link: <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nd/4.0/>

Scientific articles, intended for publication in IJFAF, undergo at least a double-blind review. This journal has adopted a permanent policy of publishing only original, high-quality, peer-reviewed scientific content, without charging authors any costs.

IJFAF voluntarily adopts international guidelines for ethical conduct and prevention of plagiarism, consistent with the core practices of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE).

Papers published in the journal may be deposited in institutional and thematic repositories, provided that links to the journal and Hrčak websites are included.
